The government respectfully requests that this Court issue an order unsealing the application and affidavit in support of search warrant (excluding Attachment I) and search warrant (excluding Attachment I), both dated May 18, 2007. The government is making this request as the defendant has made his initial appearance and has requested that these documents be produced. The government is not at this time seeking the unsealing of Attachment I, as that document includes the true identities of various sources
